The Great Semi-Annual Clearance.

It doesn't need any introduction. Every housekeeper in Washington has been on the look-out for this announcement. And well you may build your expectations high, for this is one of the two thorough and complete clearances we make each year. It gives you not only a chance to supply immediate needs-but to make economical provision for the future. While, for our part, we must gain room for the rapidly in-coming stocks. Nothing escapes—the sacrifices are practically all-including.

Vault Openings Cannot Be Used for Thomas J. Fisher & Co. recently requested the District Commissioners to grant a permit to Charles E. Miller & Bros. to keep the trapdoor of the basement of 1105 14th street northwest open. Captain Beach, the Engineer Commissioner, has replied, stating that trapdoors are permitted in vaults for the purpose of obtaining access to them from the street, and are not supposed to be open longer than necessary to take in and carry out goods. Captain Beach declares that to permit the doors of the vault to stand open so that the open-ing may serve as a window is to permit the use of a sidewalk improperly, and the District cannot permit it. He says, in conclusion, that the remedy will be to pro-vide doors which, by their construction, will permit light and ventilation.

GREAT TIMES AT OCEAN CITY. Hotels Have Good Crowds and Large Excursions Are Frequent. Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

OCEAN CITY, Md., July 18, 1901.

This last week has been undoubted:y the most successful of our Ocean City season. Not the most discontented could complain of the heat, as the mercury has amused itself by gravitating between sixty-nine and seventy-two or three. A brisk ocean breeze has invigorated us and the sun has often graciously consented to retire from active life, thus enabling us to dispense with some of our sunburn and blisters. The little town by the sea is constantly taking more residents in her embrace, and at nights the boardwalk presents quite a bril-liant effect when the four hundred stroil by on dress parade. Many excursionists by on dress parade. Many excursionists this week have been vastly impressed and are spreading our fame abroad. Two hundred of these arrived on the B., C. and A. road Sunday, and some three hundred the following Tuesday on the M. Y. P. N. The greatest crowd is expected today on a special general excursion train and one special from Wilmington. Also quite an influx of people has been caused by the nineteenth annual meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association. A swimming match was billed for Wednesday noon, and a number of enthusiastic swimmers partici-pated in the 100-yard dash, or rather splash, in which first prize was won by A. R. L. Dohme, Ph.D., and second by Mr. Butts of Washington.

Surf or deep-sea fishing is more than popular, while the golf enthusiasts are en-joying the privileges of a course which is is within twenty minutes of the most distant hotels, and which promises a fine sea bath at the end of the eighteen holes. The moonlight sailing parties are already being booked for the next full moon, and in the interim a clam bake at the golf club is well in order. The date of the open golf tournament has been set for August 1 and 2, and from the list of entries it looks as though a qualifying round would have to

A meeting of the incorporators of the Ocean City Golf and Country Club was held at the Atlantic Hotel Thursday morning. The articles of incorporation, signed by the six incorporators, H. A. The board of governors extend to the visiting members of all golf clubs the The house committee was instructed to arrange a tea for Saturday, July 20, at the club house from 4 to 6 p.m. Invitations to be sent to the several hotels and cottages, extending to them the privileges of the club for the day. An informal german was held in the Plimhimmon ball room last Saturday night, and on Monday night the children gave a pretty entertainment in the same bright casino. Dancing of a fanciful na-ture, with a display of musical and dramatic ability, made this affair a surprising and much appreciated success. For Saturday night the Atlantic bills the first full dress affair of the season. A german at this hostelry cannot fail to be a The little Episcopalian chapel of St.

AT OLD WHITE SULPHUR. Conversational Delights Mingled With Business Talks.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, July 19, 1901. Entertainments are crowding fast or each other at the Old White, and while card parties, coaching parties, lunches suppers and dancing are the order of the day and night, there are other pleasures even more lasting and deeper-the friction of bright minds, the interchange of different views and the intellectual side of life, always to be found at the White.

A meeting of the New River and Kanawha Coal Companies is now in session here.
The object is to regulate the output of coal at the several mines and to make an equitable distribution of railroad cars.
The convention also is making rules and regulations by which all are to be gow.

erned in their mining operations. The importance of this meeting will be better appreciated when it is known that the total output of coal from these mines is between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000,ions a year, and that they manufacture between 300,000 and 400,000 tons of coke a year.
